BELMONT PARK ONCE MORE

NEW YORK'S GRANDEST TRACK OPENS FOR ITS FALL MEETING THIS AFTERNOON.

Borrow and Sam Jackson Among Those Named to Contest the Municipal Handicap—The Broad-hollow Steeplechase Also an Attraction.

New York, August 31.—With the promise of perfect autumn weather and a fast track the program provided for the opening day of the Westchester Racing Association's meeting should result in excellent sport. Horsemen and race-goers alike are glad to be back at Belmont Park, as the uncertain condition of the Saratoga track rendered it difficult for trainers to give their charges necessary work and also caused upsets in form. Stables that have played a busy fall campaign will start operations at this meeting, which will be followed by continuous racing in Maryland until November 30.

Chief interest in the autumn meeting of the Westchester Racing Association of course centers in the running of the historic Futurity, which is to be decided Saturday. There are sixty-six eligibles, out of which a high-class field of starters will be drawn. The Whitney stable this year has the probable favorite for the event in Thunderer, a brother of the unbeaten Regret. While this son of Broomstick and Jersey Lightning has only started once, he won in a manner which stamped him as a good colt. Bromo, a stablemate of Thunderer, is also regarded as a likely starter. The Elkwood Park Stable's Colandrea should also start, and will have a following, as he has raced in grand form all this year. The Futurity this year promises to be worth more than last year, when Trojan's share, as the winner, was $16,010.

Tomorrow's program has as its feature the Municipal Handicap, which carries a guaranteed value of $2,500, the distance being one mile and a quarter, with Borrow, Sam Jackson, Stromboli, Galner and The Finn named to go. The Broadhollow Steeplechase Handicap will provide a contest between the jumpers, with seven cards to start. The list of stakes for the twelve days' racing at Belmont Park are unusually attractive and horsemen have been pointing their stables for these events.

While some of the minor stables will get a rest until the opening at Havre de Grace, all the good horses in the different divisions will be seen in action at Belmont Park, and the autumn meeting, which is to be inaugurated to-morrow, will equal, if not excel, any meeting held on the metropolitan circuit this year.

Trainer Pete Coyne is due to arrive within the next twenty-four hours with eleven horses, which he has been racing for their owner, George J. Long, at Saratoga. They will be stabled upon arrival at Churchill Downs, where Mr. Long has in training, at present, fifteen yearlings. This will make twenty-six horses the Louisville turfman will have in training here and he has eleven other yearlings still at Bashford Manor Farm. Some of the latter collection he may decide to dispose of in the fall yearling sales. Horses of Mr. Long's breeding are much sought for by racing men, as few of the number he has bred have failed to turn out to be good winners on the turf.

James Osborne, one of the assistants to starter Harry Morrissey, on the Kentucky Circuit, who has arrived here from northern Canada, where he has been serving as starter at the various meetings there, Osborne will remain here until just before the meeting begins at Lexington and will set up at both Churchill Downs and Douglas Park a starting barrier for the schooling of horses. He would not this early set up the device at the Downs, as the fall meeting there does not begin until Wednesday, September 23, but he was requested to put the machine up there by W. C. Clancy, who has charge of the extensive racing string of Corrigan & McKinney. Osborne is one of the best hands in the business at schooling horses, and will have plenty of work to do here in this line until Lexington's meeting begins.

tracks will have for racing here the string of horses owned by Charles Watkins of Petersburg, Ill. Watkins is known to racing by the performance of two members of his stable when racing flourish on the big Chicago tracks, those two noted horses being Little Grove and Peter McCue. The latter was one of the sensations of the turf when he first made his appearance on the track as a two-year-old. He was entered against all the stars of that age then racing at Chicago and he opened the betting at a hundred to one. Even after he had been backed down by some followers to sixty to one, he was still given little consideration by the bookmakers, but they awoke to the fact that the real money was being bet on the colt, when his following started to back him, even when his odds went down as short as eight to one. Never will those who saw that race forget the way Peter McCue, which they called the bush colt, won by more than a dozen lengths, and it was not until the races for two-year-olds lengthened out on the Chicago tracks and he was asked to pick up high weight, that he was beaten at all. From that day, whenever Watkins sends anything to the races, his stable is always closely watched and while he may have no Peter McCue to race in Kentucky, he would doubtless not be coming to blue grass land unless he thinks he has something that can show heels to the cracks of the Kentucky turf. Few horses, as two-year-olds, have possessed the speed Peter McCue had and he reproduced that speed in one instance at least when he sent to the races the flying Tern's Trick, which holds the record of five-eighths of a mile in 58, made at Oakland in 1910.

AN UNUSUAL HAPPENING IN IRELAND.

In transference from one place to another in England, yearlings have been mixed up, and such happenings are not entirely unknown elsewhere. The latest case of the kind comes from Ireland. It appears that in November last, prior to joining the colors, Mr. Hubert Hartigan presented three yearling to his step-daughter, Miss Garth. They were sent to the Curragh, and delivered at Mr. Parkinson's end farm, a couple of miles from Maddens-town Lodge. They had labels on the headstalls, furnishing particulars as to their names and breeding. Mr. Parkinson was away when the yearlings arrived at his place, and next day he went to have a look at the horses committed to his charge. He noted the particulars on the labels and copied these into his private book. One of the three was Mrs. T., by Druce—Misseltoe Girl, and another a brown or black filly by Altmabreac—Dingle, called Poperinghe. The filly supposed to be Mrs. T. ran at the Curragh April meeting, and the following month won at Cork Park. That there was possibility of mistake in the identity of the youngsters did not enter into the calculations of anyone until a few weeks ago, when Mr. Hartigan, who was home on leave, went to Maddens-town Lodge and was shown his step-daughter's horses. When he was told he was looking at Mrs. T., he said: "That is not Mrs. T.; it is Poperinghe." Until Mr. Hartigan's visit no one who really knew the youngsters had seen them from the time of their arrival at Maddens-town Lodge, and no idea can be formed as to whether Mr. Hartigan's men or some of Mr. Parkinson's employees mixed up the headstalls. Immediately Mr. H. Hartigan was aware a mistake was made, he communicated with the stewards of the Cork Park meeting to that effect, and Mrs. T. was disqualified, the race going to the second horse, Avonua.

GWYN TOMPKINS' LATEST ACHIEVEMENT.

New York, August 31.—Weldship, winner of the three cross-country handicap stakes at Saratoga this year and the only horse that has accomplished that feat, is without doubt one of the finest and most imposing looking jumpers shown in this country for many years. He is a rich chestnut of nearly solid color, standing sixteen hands two and a half inches high and now, in racing condition, weighs 1,235 pounds. He won his race at Saratoga easily and was not at all distressed at the finish. Gwyn Tompkins, who shared with his highly-prized charge, Weldship, the honor of taking down all the cross-country stakes at Saratoga for the first time in their history, was naturally proud of being the only trainer who had captured all these stakes with one horse, but he had another reason for being gratified over Weldship's victory. At his farm, Glen Burnie, at Warrenton, O., he has the sire of Weldship, Sealhorse II., which, although he has had limited opportunities, has produced besides this great gelding, such good jumpers as Old Salt, Son of the Wind, and others.

OTTAWA'S MEETING CLOSES

LARGE ATTENDANCE CHEERS THE FINISHES OF AN AFTERNOON OF GOOD RACING.

Marshall Again an Easy Winner and Gains a New Owner—The African Proves Best in the Steeplechase.

Ottawa, Ont., August 31.—The racing on the final day of the fall meeting at Comaught Park was run over a heavy and drying out track and produced several upsets. The usual card of seven races was offered for decision and a dash under selling conditions, which engaged some of the best platers at the course, was awarded the position usually given over to a stake feature. In this race R. A. White's Marshall was returned an easy winner over Astrologer and Kimmidy. The winner outclassed his opponents in the going, moved up easily when called on to pass the leaders and drew away into a long lead. The race resulted in Marshall's becoming the property of Sam Louis. Marshall accounted for the closing race of yesterday's card and the stable was then forced to stand an advance of $405 to retain the horse. Louis was responsible for the bid and today he advanced him from $600 to $800, at which figure Mr. White let him go.

A large and enthusiastic crowd took advantage of the final opportunity of witnessing racing here this year. Despite the fact that the majority of the winners were returned by wide margins, the racing was interesting throughout the afternoon. Ideal weather prevailed.

A steeplechase for three-year-olds and over at about two miles resulted in a splendid race, in which The African, ridden by M. O'Connor, was returned the winner over Dr. Holzberg and F. A. Stone. The African was decidedly best and out-jumped his opposition from the start, but was taken near the end when he commenced to show signs of loading.

Jockey Warrington, who was recently forced to cancel his engagements owing to being struck in the eye by a flying clod of mud, was able to resume riding today.

The exodus for Montreal began this evening when a special train consisting of ten cars left for Blue Bonnets. This shipment will be followed by others tomorrow. All the big stables at present quartered at the course will go to Blue Bonnets.

H. G. Bedwell's Runway was scratched from the jumping race today for lack of a rider. Runway is reported to have schooled much better than his stable companion, Early Light, for which an offer of $1,000 was refused recently.

All of the officials of the meeting, including Judges Nelson and Murphy, starter Dale and Secretary McLennan, departed for Montreal following the running of the last race. Sheridan Clark will be unable to leave for at least another day because of the press of business.

News was received today that W. M. Murray has been appointed starter of the coming meeting of the Mount Royal Jockey Club.

Harvey Boyle today purchased Beven Us from A. C. Pratt for $900. Mr. Pratt disposed of the horse on account of the bad disposition that the plater recently developed. Boyle will campaign throughout the remainder of the Canadian circuit.

Russell McDermott, the young apprentice with the stable of A. R. Bresler, carried off the riding honors of the meeting.

Peter Sheridan departed for New York last evening on a business trip. While away he will have some of the yearlings to be put up for auction during the course of the next week or so.

A large number of the followers of the sport at present here will leave for New York this evening to take in the Belmont Park meeting.

HARBOR HILL STEEPLECHASE ENTRIES.

A record entry has been received for the Harbor Hill Steeplechase for three-year-olds, which will be the feature of the autumn meeting of the Piping Rock Racing Association. The added money for this event, amounting to $3,000, as well as the cup for the winner is donated by Clarence H. Mackay and the leading cross-country men of the country contend each year for the prize.

The entry list of twenty-nine for the coming race exceeds by three the best previous record for the race, won by Miss Emily Randolph's Repentant in 1912. Of those entered Thomas Hitchcock's Hustler and George D. Widener's Eleasdan are the only ones that have shown form over the jumps, but there are some fast horses engaged, including Mrs. F. Ambrose Clark's Rupica. The entries of owners and horses follow:

Herbert L. Pratt, Superhunan, Garter Buckle; J. E. Davis, Alledo, White Metal, Vini; Mr. M. E. Smith, Dolly Maddison; W. M. This shipment includes Star Jasmine, Waterblossom, Poppee and others. Primero was shipped to Belmont Park to start in the Futurity next Saturday. Trainer Will Wallace is in charge of Primero and also of Big Smoke, owned by Sheriff T. C. Bradley of Lexington, that will also start in the Futurity. Greville, in the stable of trainer Will J. Young, showed the fastest mile of a fall workout this morning when he ran the mile in 1:11%. Water Witch, from the same stable, ran a mile in 1:42%. Walter Grater's Bell Boy covered a mile in 1:46. CURRENT NOTES OF THE TURF.

A. G. Weston will ship his horses direct from Saratoga to Havre de Grace.
James Milton has left Saratoga for Montreal, where he will serve as starter at Dorval.

Thomas Platt and John D. Carr of Lexington were at New York for the yearling sales at Sheepshead Bay Tuesday.

W. P. Austin has bought Duke of Dunbar, which won his maiden race last week in the colors of E. J. Travers.

F. Ambrose Clark, who has been ill nearly all the racing season of typhoid fever, paid his first visit to Saratoga Saturday to see Knight of Mercei run for the Beverwyck Steeplechase.

Former Senator Camden has sold two out of his stable at Saratoga to W. T. Anderson. They are the two-year-old gelding Omaha, by Star Shot, and the three-year-old colt Harry, by Peter Quince.

Weldship's victory in the Beverwyck Steeplechase Saturday made the fourth time this steeplechase has been won by horses trained by Gwyn Tompkins. The others were Amur, Lavator and Jimmie Lane.
Berlin newspapers are elated over the success of the race meeting at Hoppegarten on Sunday, August 21. Hoppegarten is the German Newmarket and the meeting was one of those occasionally sanctioned by the government on behalf of the breeding interests. It is stated that the attendance rivalled that of peace times. The receipts amounted to $7,200. The totalizer, the government betting machine, handled 32,250 bets, which approaches the record number handled in times of peace.

The fractional time of the latest work-out of H. P. Whitney's Thunder for the Fatuity was 23 1/2, 35 1/2, 48 1/2, 1:01, 1:14, 1:29 1/2, for seven furlongs. This took place at Saratoga Saturday morning before the shipment of the stable to Belmont Park. Another work-out that attracted attention was a mile by a black colt named Done De Roco, owned by August Belmont, which has been raced in this country. He is by Rock Sand—Donna de Oro and turned a mile in 1:45 in preparation for engagements at Belmont Park.

Quite one of the most successful breeders of the present day is Lady Conyngham, who in two successive years—1910 and 1911—was responsible for the breeding of the best youngsters of the season in Saratoga and London. Indeed, the stock she breeds—and no one shows more intelligent interest in this direction than her ladyship—win in various parts of the world, and I see that recently another of her breeding, Cherisette, a six-year-old half-sister by Collier to that fine stayer Irish Marine, won the July Handicap at Johannesburg.—Audaux in Horse and Hound.

GENERAL NEWS NOTES OF THE DAY.

An official communication made public by the war office yesterday at Petrograd says: To the west of Friderichstadt (Courland) the engagements Saturday and Sunday continued to be of the same stubborn character as previously. Developing their operations the Germans simultaneously opened attacks against our troops on Troneau, on the Ekauput railway, and against the village of Bilschatten. In the direction of Vilna the fighting continues on approximately the same front. The enemy, having crossed to the right bank of the Niemen in the region of Olita, attempted Sunday to advance in the direction of Orany. On the remainder of the front along the middle Niemen and toward the south as far as the river Pripiet our armies continue their retirement, covered by rear-guards, which on Saturday repulsed a series of German attacks in the region of Lipik, inflicting heavy losses. Farther south our rear-guards arrested a stubborn offensive by strong enemy forces from the west in the front of Pruspan-Goritz. In the region of Vladimir-Volynsky the enemy, having changed the disposition of his troops, continued Sunday his offensive with strong forces in the direction of Vladimir-Volynsky and toward Lutsk. North of Lutsk fighting has occurred on both sides of the river Styr.

State department officials disclosed yesterday at Washington that they do not expect modified practices under the British orders in council, announced by the British embassy, will cover the general British policy toward neutral shipping, against which the United States now is preparing its new protest. No concrete propositions for relaxation of interference with shipping have reached the state department. It was stated, and such general discussion of the subject as has taken place will not affect this government's note to Great Britain now in preparation. Arrangements for assisting in the identification of goods bought in Germany, but not paid for before March 1, which are designed to release quantities of American cargoes held up in neutral ports, are at present being carried on extra-governmentally between the British embassy and the foreign trade advisers of the state department. Those steps, however, affect special cases considered by the state department officials as a change in the attitude of the British government in regard to the representations by the United States respecting neutral shipping.

Tonnage taxes collected on the entry of American and foreign vessels in the foreign trade of the United States during the fiscal year ended June 30 were the largest in more than thirty years, aggregating $1,314,116. The department of commerce announced yesterday. This is $1,157 greater than for the previous fiscal year. British and French ships paid $752,094, or $201 more than during the previous year; German ships, which paid $186,844 in 1914, this year paid only $25,871, nearly all of which was paid in July and early August, 1914. American ships paid $104,736, compared with $77,445 in 1914, the increase being due mainly to the ship registry act and the government war-risk insurance on American ships. The increased receipts from American, Dutch, Scandinavian, Spanish, Italian and Japanese ships made good the loss of revenue from German and Austrian ships. Revenue from tonnage taxes, contrary to expectations, has remained undiminished in spite of the European war.

Gov. Dunne in Chicago yesterday admitted that he is seriously considering issuing a call for a special session of the legislature to iron out the kinks in the grain inspection and other state departments due to the Creighton election. The Ferguson suit attacking the appropriations of the legislature on technical grounds. The governor reached Chicago from Boston, where he attended the conference of governors. Besides the legislative situation, he took up the matter of appointing a warden to fill the vacancy at the Joliet penitentiary. He also took up the matter of the legal point of the Ferguson suit decision before making up his mind on the special session question. He talked to Chief Grain Inspector John P. Gibbons on the manner in which nineteen grain inspectors are now being paid under a loan agreement with O'Connell, chairman of the public utilities commission.

From Honolulu a dispatch of yesterday says: The work of pumping out the drydock in which the recovered submarine F-4 was placed last night was proceeding at an early hour this morning, and had been almost completed, only about an hour's work remaining to be done. It has been discovered that the hull of the vessel was torn in three places during the earlier stages of the attempt to raise it. Two of the holes were protected by mats, but one was unprotected, and it is now believed that during the past weeks the creatures of the sea have entered the hull and mutilated the bodies of the victims beyond the possibility of recognition. It is expected that the hull will be opened some time during the day. Meantime marines are guarding the drydock and preventing the public from approaching.

Yesterday's baseball results—National League: Chicago 2, New York 0 (first game); New York 7, Chicago 1 (second game); Pittsburgh 5, Brooklyn 3 (first game); Brooklyn 3, Pittsburgh 2 (second game); Philadelphia 3, St. Louis 2 (first game); St. Louis 7, Philadelphia 2 (second game). American League: Detroit 9, Chicago 8; Washington 4, New York 1 (first game); Washington 3, New York 2 (second game); Cleveland 6, St. Louis 0. Federal League: Pittsburgh 6, Chicago 2 (first game); Pittsburgh 5, Chicago 2 (second game); Newark 6, Buffalo 5.

An Amsterdam dispatch of yesterday says: The German government considers the submarine incident closed and has declared its willingness to punish the commander of the submarine which sank the steamer, according to a dispatch which has been received here from Berlin. There is reported to be considerable feeling in German militarist circles because of Chamberlain's Berlin speech, his so-called "weakness" toward the United States.

The United States scout ship Chester has arrived at Canoe, Crete, and 470 refugees expelled from Beirut, Syria, by the Turks. The refugees include citizens of all the quadruple entente powers, as well as of several other nations. The Chester will return soon to Beirut for another shipment of Europeans who have been ordered out of Turkey. Another American ship is expected at Canoe with refugees from Alexandria, Asiatic Turkey.

The trouble in the South Wales, England, coal mining districts, which threatened to precipitate a serious strike, has been settled. The terms of settlement of the dispute have not yet been officially published, but the representatives of the miners claim that the demands of the men have been conceded.

Growth of the new Alaskan railroad construction terminates at Anchorage. Anchorage, which was six months ago a city of 5,000 population today, with big government realty transactions, is told in telegraphic reports to the interior department.

A telegram from Maasbode to Amsterdam says allied aviators destroyed last Saturday a large building at Ghent, Belgium, used by the Germans for housing aircraft.

ENGLAND'S FAMOUS BIG MONEY RACES.

Twenty-eight years have passed away since the Sandown management inaugurated what may be almost designated a new era with the Eclipse Stakes, and though the novelty of a contest for $50,000 has grown old, the race has been responsible for many stirring chapters in turf chronicles. Sandown is proverbial for its good fortune in the way of weather, but it was anything but propitious when Bendigo won in 1886 and the new venture received the baptism of a soaking afternoon that is among the unpleasantest of the memories of the turf. Doubtless "Bendy" had luck on his side in pulling through, for had all gone well with Minting, he would have had to tackle in him a very difficult proposition. Public favorite, though he was, he could lay no claim to equality with Mr. Vyne's brilliant representative, which had only one temporary better than himself—the mighty Ormonde. The victory of Bendigo, however, gave the affair a good send-off, and "Eclipse day" has come to be synonymous with the double attraction of a popular outing and a society function. It has rarely failed to other than a good if not a first-class horse, the only exceptions being, perhaps, Cheers and Darley Dale. Whether the latest winner, Hapsburg, comes into the first or second category has yet to be conclusively proved. Such names as Ayshire, Orme, Isinglass, St. Frusquin, Persimmon, Flying Fox, Rock Sand, Jockey Club, and Bayardo, Leungberg, Neil Gow, Swynford, Prince Palatine and Tracery are included in the list of Eclipse winners, and some of them have been concerned in most exciting finishes. A recent case is the battle one year ago between Leungberg and Neil Gow, which the audience could not get in passing his box, and there have been other occasions when the contest was almost equally as close. On some the result has aroused a great outburst of enthusiasm, notably when Orme won for the Duke of Devonshire, and on others it has shown exceptional merit as a two-year-old, and his classic prospects were undeniable when, just before the Two Thousand Guineas, he was overtaken by some mysterious malady, which not only prevented him running for the great race at Newmarket, but prevented him from the post for the Derby. He recovered sufficiently, however, to take part in the Eclipse Stakes, which he won by a neck after a bull-dog tussle with Orvietto, and there ensued such a scene as had never been witnessed at Sandown before. The enthusiasm was almost indescribable, and his owner, trainer and all connected with the Kingsclere stable were overwhelmed with congratulations. Little less enthusiastic was the demonstration when he repeated his victory the following year, and Orme stands out as the only horse to win the ten-thousand-pounder twice. It went to the late Duke of Westminster a third time by the aid of Flying Fox in 1899, and that colt is undoubtedly the very best in the long list of quality represented by the winners of the race. He was one of the most sensational horses of his day. He was the winner of an exceptionally high trial at home, and yet encountered no rather unexpected defeats as a juvenile—by St. Gris in the Imperial Produce Stakes at Kempton and by Calman in the Middle Park Plate, conceding five pounds on the first occasion and three on the second. He came by his own again in the Criterion Stakes, when he decisively turned the tables on St. Gris and went practically unchallenged through his second season, winning all the half-dozen races in which he took part, including the Two Thousand Guineas, Derby and St. Leger. As he won, besides the Eclipse Stakes, the two other $50,000 races, the Princess of Wales's Stakes and the Jockey Club Stakes, sufficient proof of his quality was afforded, and he was the equine hero of 1899. Then came the following year, his sensational purchase by M. E. Blanc for $7,500 guineas at the sale of the horses at Kingsclere in March, and the success he proved as a sire in France has been almost as sensational as his previous happenings of his career.

There have been many other notable incidents in connection with the race for the Eclipse Stakes, and in 1901 Epsom Lad supplied one which was largely attributable to a mishap. The colt was one of the numerous "Lads" sired by Ladas and bred by Lord Rosbery, but his lordship disposed of him, with others of his horses in training, at the Hough-ton Meeting in 1900, and he was purchased for 1,050 guineas by Mr. J. Buchanan, who was then racing as "Mr. Kincaid." What a bargain he picked up was demonstrated the following season when he commenced by winning the Princess of Wales's Stakes at Newmarket, and then came the Eclipse. As at Newmarket, he was ridden by the foreign jockey, Gomez, and during the race, when making the straight, his saddle slipped back, and he lost a small cloth. Though greatly handicapped, his rider managed to hold the saddle by his means and win by a head in a most exciting finish with Ian and Disguise, of which the last-named was third, beaten by the same narrow margin. Another memorable struggle was that in 1903 between Ard Patrick, Sceptre, and Rock Sand, and it may not be inappropriate to recall the battle of giants. Rock Sand was favorite, but could only finish third. Ard Patrick being a neck in front of Sceptre. Three better horses probably never at one time ran for the race, bright as its record is for generally excellent class of its competitors. That class has been very high during the past years. The names of Swynford, Prince Palatine, and Tracery sufficiently attest, and, if on no other ground, the establishment of the race has been well justified by the high tone it has always maintained and the brilliant share of turf history it has supplied. It has led to the disbursement of enormous sums of money, in which others of the kind have assisted though not to the extent of the big stake run for at Fisher. The following table sets out the total and the amount taken by individual horses:

Year.	Horse.	Amount.
1886	Bendigo	$50,000

The race was not run in 1887 and 1890. †Dead heat.

Imitation, it has been said, is the sincerest form of flattery, and imitation succeeded the establishment of the Eclipse Stakes. The Leicester executive had been studying the franchise liberality in the matter of stakes about that time, and they were not long in inaugurating the Prince of Wales's Stakes, for three-year-olds. It was originally intended to be a $100,000 affair—a value unprecedented—and the project received the support of many influential patrons of the turf, but it eventually resolved itself into one of $50,000 for the winner, $3,750 for the second, and $1,250 for the third, thus making its total value greater than that of the Sandown race. A field of seventeen came out for it at the Spring Meeting of 1889, but it proved an easy thing for Donavan, which carried the colors of the Duke of Portland with conspicuous success the previous year, and it may be mentioned that on the same ground he had won the Portland Stakes of $30,000. The Prince of Wales's Stakes had been materially towards the record position the Duke held at the close of 1889 among the winning owners—no less than $369,232.50 going down to his name—but it was the only "mammoth" race run at Leicester, and its worth was afterwards considerably reduced. In 1889 the Kempton Park Royal Stakes of $50,000, Ayshire won in addition to the "Eclipse," but it was the first and last time of asking.

With the object of strengthening the programs at the turf headquarters the stewards of the Jockey Club established a couple of ten-thousand-pounder, and the Prince of Wales's Stakes and the Jockey Club Stakes made their appearance at the First July and First October Meetings respectively of 1894. Both were carried off by Isinglass, which also accounted for the Eclipse Stakes the same year, and the career of that horse may be described as brief and brilliant in the three seasons he was racing he only knew defeat once, and that was in the Lancashire Plate at Manchester as a three-year-old, when he failed to give ten pounds to Raeburn, and he left off with the record total of $280,675 winning stake-money to his credit. It will be seen from the tables appended that other winners of the Eclipse Stakes than Isinglass took either or both the big races at headquarters, and it is not necessary to go into the details of their doings. Like the race at Sandown, each showed a brilliant list, but the Princess of Wales's Stakes has now dropped out of the ranks. It has been of much lower value since Dinneford was successful in 1906, and for that reason only figures in the totals of the amount won down to that date:

Year.	Horse.	Amount.
1894	Isinglass	$56,510
1895	Laveno	44,950
1896	Persimmon	44,950

The remarks above have only taken account of those races coming into the $50,000 (or over) category, but during the period covered by them a large number of stakes have been greatly increased in value and others instituted on a value basis. Nowadays owners have quite an embarrassing choice of stakes both in the way of handicaps and weight-for-age events, and material addition to the latter class was made when the Jockey Club founded the Newmarket Stakes in 1880. It may be added that a considerable time ago an attempt was made by the Jockey Club to execute the terms of the National Hunt Rules on the lines of the "Eclipse" with a sliding scale of forfeits, etc., but it met with little appreciation on the part of owners. It was to have been known as the Britannia Steeplechase of $50,000, but reached little further than the advertisement stage.

ANNUAL RACING FORM

The International Authority
on American Racing,

Circulating in the United States, Cuba, Philippine Islands, Canada, Mexico, England, France, Germany, Austro-Hungary, Australia, India, Argentina, Chili, Peru, etc., etc.

This Book Carries

indexed form charts of all recognized racing in the United States, Canada, Cuba, and Mexico, has supplanted all others for the use of racing officials and is universally used by jockey clubs throughout the world. Compact, accurate, perfectly printed, with absolutely correct index, on linen paper, lettered, and bound in flexible leather. Contains, besides charts of all recognized racing on American tracks, the American and Canadian time records, scales of weights of various governing bodies and record of jockey mounts in the United States, Canada, Mexico, and Cuba, for the year.

THE SPECIAL ATTENTION OF STUDENTS OF FORM

is directed to the method of indexing the charts. The index shows each and every start of all horses that have raced, with firsts, seconds, thirds and track conditions designated on the occasion of each and every start. By means of this innovation it is possible for the user of the form book to instantly determine a horse's ability to run on any sort of track concerning which information is desired.

Annual Racing Form

has been oversold for the past few years and the attention of prospective purchasers of the 1915 edition is respectfully called to the desirability of placing orders early.
